- II. While it is voluntary, except in the circumstances explained below, for you to furnish the information on this form to Social Security, no lump-sum death payment may be paid unless an application has been received by a Social Security office. Your response is mandatory where the refusal to disclose certain information affecting your right to payment would reflect a fraudulent intent to secure payment not authorized by the Social Security Act.

- IV. Failure to provide all or part of this information could prevent an accurate and timely decision on your claim, and could result in the loss of some benefits for eligible dependents of the deceased.

- VI. The information you provide may also be used without your consent in automated matching programs. These matching programs are computer comparisons of Social Security Administration records with records kept by other Federal agencies or State and local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

These and other reasons why information about you may be used or given out are explained in the Federal Register. If you would like more information about this, get in touch with any Social Security office.
