|---|---|
| I. The Social Security Administration is authorized to collect the information on this form under sections 202(i) and 205(a) of the Social Security Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 402(i) and 405(a)). II. While it is voluntary, except in the circumstances explained below, for you to furnish the information on this form to Social Security, no lump-sum death payment may be paid unless an application has been received by a Social Security office. Your response is mandatory where the refusal to disclose certain information affecting your right to payment would reflect a fraudulent intent to secure payment not authorized by the Social Security Act. III. The information on this form is needed to enable Social Security to determine if you are entitled to the lump-sum death payment. It will also enable us to determine if there are any survivors of the deceased who may qualify for monthly Social Security benefits as dependents of the deceased. IV. Failure to provide all or part of this information could prevent an accurate and timely decision on your claim, and could result in the loss of some benefits for eligible dependents of the deceased. V. Although the information you furnish on this form is almost never used for any other purpose than stated in Part III, above, there is a possibility that in the administration of the Social Security programs or for the administration of programs requiring coordination with the Social Security Administration, information may be disclosed to another person or to another government agency as follows: | 1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage. 2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and the Veterans Administration). 3. To facilitate statistical research and audit activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of the Social Security programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and private concerns under contract to Social Security). VI. The information you provide may also be used without your consent in automated matching programs. These matching programs are computer comparisons of Social Security Administration records with records kept by other Federal agencies or State and local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs. These and other reasons why information about you may be used or given out are explained in the Federal Register. If you would like more information about this, get in touch with any Social Security office. |
