PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Section 901 of Title 30 to the US Code and 20 CFR 725.505 - 513 authorize collection of this information. The purpose of this information is to determine whether the CM-910 applicant is eligible to be selected as the representative payee for a black lung beneficiary. Completion of this form is not mandatory; however, failure to provide the information may result in your not being selected as a representative payee. Additional disclosures of this information may be to: coal mine operators, who may be liable for benefit payments, as well as their insurers and legal representatives; state workers' compensation agencies or the Social Security Administration, for the purpose of determining benefit payment offsets as specified under the Black Lung Benefits Act; the Internal Revenue Service and other federal, state and local agencies for the purpose of conducting investigations related to the proper payment of benefits; labor unions of which the beneficiary is a member for the purpose of exercising an interest in the Black Lung claim of its members as a part of their service to the members, data processing contractors to the U. S. Department of Labor and debt collection agencies and credit bureaus for the purpose of collecting overpayments that might be made to the beneficiary.

The penalty upon conviction for the misuse of benefits by a representative payee is a felony and/or imprisonment for up to five (5) years for the first offense, pursuant to Public Law 98-460, 42 U.S.C. 408. A second offense is punishable by up to five (5) years of imprisonment and/or a fine not exceeding $25,000. The court may also order restitution.
