Intent of Employment

NIFA Veterinary Medicine Loan Repayment Program

Instructions: Please complete Section 1 with contact information for an official who can provide verification of intent to offer you employment (including availability of time and resources to conduct your proposed service) in a veterinarian shortage situation. This "intent to offer" is not legally binding but should represent a good faith expectation that the probability of employment is high. If you are granted a VMLRP award, the hiring official identified in this form will be contacted and be asked to complete Section 2 of this form, which will constitute certification of a firm offer of employment.

Section 1. Contact Information (to be completed by applicant)

Important: The applicant must obtain information needed to complete this section from the appropriate authorized hiring official for the practice or organization. If you are, or expect to be, owner of the practice you will be working at, then you will be the hiring official for the purposes of the contact information requested below.
