Select Report Type:	Reporting Period Covered	Additional Explanation
<input type="radio"/> Annual Report	_____ to _____ (month/day/year)	You can modify these dates to reflect the actual time period, not to exceed one year
<input type="radio"/> Final Report	start date to end date (month/day/year) final reports summarize the lifetime of the project and change the project status in CRIS to terminated	You cannot modify the dates for a final report; they must always reflect the lifetime of the project. If the project start or termination dates shown to the left are not correct, contact your site administrator.

Outputs

Report outputs completed during the reporting period that contribute to the goals and objectives of the project (do not include publications here, they are to be reported separately in the block below). Do not include findings or conclusions that have been reached; these are to be reported separately as changes in knowledge in the outcomes section. Include a description of how the results have been disseminated to communities of interest or how the product is being shared. If this is a final report, give a brief summary of the most significant outputs and dissemination activities for the entire life of the project. more ...
