We may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matching programs compare our records with those of Federal, State, or local government agencies. Many agencies use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualified for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree to it. Explanations about these and other reasons why information you provide us may be used or given out are available in Social Security offices. If you want to learn more about this, contact any Social Security office.
