Welcome!

To complete a Child Disability Report on behalf of a child applying for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) disability benefits, you need to:

- give us information about the child's medical conditions, medical records, education, and work history and
- contact Social Security to complete an application for SSI benefits.

You can complete the Child Disability Report online but you must contact us to complete the SSI application. The SSI application can't be completed online. You can apply in person or over the phone, or get more information about SSI and this application process.

Using the online Child Disability Report gives you:

- security and privacy for the child's information
- step by step instructions and examples to help you complete the report
- a process to collect information that applies to the child, similar to the interview process in a Social Security office
- the ability to work at your own pace, stopping when you want and coming back to finish later

Applying in Person or Over the Phone

If you prefer not to do this report on the Internet, you can use any of the following ways to complete a Disability Report:

- Call our toll-free number, 1-800-772-1213. Explain that you want to file an SSI application on behalf of a child. If you are deaf or hard of hearing, call our toll-free "TTY" number, 1-800-325-0778. Representatives are available Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

- Go to your local Social Security Office and ask to file an SSI application on of the child.
- If you have a working printer, print a paper Disability Report-Child from the Internet. This form is in Portable Document Format (PDF) and requires Adobe Acrobat Reader to open and print it. If you don't have Adobe Acrobat Reader on your computer you can download it at <http://www.adobe.com/accessibility/index.html>.
- If you live outside the United States, see Service Around the World.

What You Will Need

The online Child Disability Report will ask for information about the child, the child's medical history, and the child's education and work history. The list below shows details about what you will need:

About the Child

- The child's full name, Social Security Number, and date of birth.
- Your (the applicant's) name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address if you have one.
- The name, address, and telephone number of someone else who knows about the child's illnesses, injuries, or conditions (referred to from here on as "condition" or "conditions").
- A description of the child's conditions, including when they began and how they limit the child's daily activities.

Education and Work History (if applicable)

- The names, addresses, and telephone numbers for all schools or educational facilities that the child has attended in the last 12 months.
- The type of behavioral or learning test(s) that the child had, and when the test(s) was done.
- A description of the child's last job, if he or she has worked.

Medical History

- The names, addresses and telephone numbers for all doctors, hospitals, and clinics that the child has seen for his or her conditions, the dates of and reasons for the visits.
- Name(s) of any medical test(s) that the child had, when and where the test(s) was done, and who ordered it.
- Name(s) of each prescription medicine(s) that the child takes and the doctor(s) who prescribed it.

- Name(s) of any non-prescription medicine(s) that the child takes.

For us to decide if the child is disabled under Social Security Law, you must give enough information so that we can contact the child's doctors and hospitals to get child's medical records. It is important that you give us the names, addresses, and of treatment for all the child's doctors and hospitals. You do not have to get the records.
