

Justification for Non-Material Change

The Veteran's Affairs (VA) recently decided to pilot the Direct Express® Debit MasterCard® program. This program allows benefit recipients to receive their monthly payments via a pre-paid debit card instead of receiving a check. When enrolling VA benefit recipients for this program, there is specific information needed that is not necessary for other benefit types.