

Justification for Change
Information Collection 2133-0505, Voluntary Tanker Agreement

Due to agency discretion, the Maritime Administration increased the burden of this information collection to capture fleet inventory information needed to monitor the adequacy of the number of tankers to support deployment of U.S. military forces in defense of other contingency operations.