TOTAL³:

1. Please provide the name of the handler that manufactured the product you are placing in the reserves.
2. Conversion of finished product to its Raw Product Equivalent (RPE) should be calculated using your company's conversion factor if the product was manufactured by your firm or the originating handler's RPE factor if you are using another handler's product.
3. The RPE total should equal the Form 4, Reserve Inventory less completed diversion activities less CIAB releases.

The undersigned hereby certifies to the CIAB and the Secretary of Agriculture that this is the true and correct Inventory Location Report for the undersigned Handler for the indicated crop year.
