OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

March 15, 2010

Dear Resident:

If you believe that you or others living with you have not been counted in the 2010 Census, please take a moment to complete and mail back the enclosed census form today.

Your answers are important. Census results are used to decide the number of representatives each state has in the U.S. Congress. The amount of government money your neighborhood receives also depends on these answers. That money is used for services for children and the elderly, roads, and many other local needs.

Your answers are confidential. That means the Census Bureau cannot give out information that identifies you or your household. Your answers will only be used for statistical purposes, and for no other purpose. The back of this letter contains more information about protecting your data.

Sincerely,

Steve H. Murdock
Director, U.S. Census Bureau

Your Answers Are Confidential

Federal law protects your privacy and keeps your answers confidential (Title 13, United States Code, Sections 9 and 214). The answers you give on the census form cannot be obtained by law enforcement or tax collection agencies. They cannot be obtained with a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request.

As allowed by law, census data become public after 72 years (Title 44, United States Code, Section 2108). This information can be used for family history and other types of historical research.
