Landmark Events	January	February	March	April	May	June	July	August	September	October	November	December
First, I want to ask you about what we call "landmark events" - important things that happened to you this year, that is, during 2010. These events are often very useful in helping people recall when other things happened. So, take a moment to think about major events in your life in 2010. For example: Were there any births or deaths of people important to you? (When did these events occur?)
Did you begin or end a relationship? Did you get married, divorced or separated? (When did these events occur?)
Did you attend any weddings or other ceremonies or special events? (When did these events occur?)
Did you have a serious injury or illness? Did any close family members have a serious injury or illness? (When did these events occur?)
How about birthdays or anniversaries? (When did these events occur?)
Vacations? (When did these occur?))
Any other significant or memorable events? (When did these occur?)
