

1. You are doing a report on employment in the United States and want to know how many men in California and Maryland are blue-collar workers and White.

2. For a research project examining poverty in the southern United States, find information on women in poverty in Georgia and South Carolina in 2005.

4. How many people live in the state of Ohio?

5. You are doing a study on Wales children living in America. How many children of Welsh background are in the United States?

6. You want to know how many people are of two races in the District of Columbia. How would you find this information?

8. You are thinking about opening a bakery and want to know how much money commercial bakeries make in California and Maryland. How would you find this information?

9. You are working on a project that involves work environments in the United States, and you are interested in the history of coal mining. How many coal mining companies were in the United States in 2007?