Decision Under Section 210 or 245A*Instructions

Write your name and Alien Registration Number (A #), if any, at the top of each sheet of paper and indicate the section and number of the item to which the answer refers.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

This form is used to notify U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) that you are appealing the decision to the Director of USCIS of your denied permanent residence, temporary residence, or a waiver of grounds of inadmissibility under the amnesty program provisions of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, (IRCA).

Briefs

A brief in support of an appeal is not required, but may be desired. If a brief is to be submitted, it may be provided with Form I-694, Notice of Appeal of Decision Under Section 210 or 245A, or received up to 30 calendar days from the date of receipt of Form I-694 at the USCIS Service Center.

Oral Argument

Oral argument before USCIS Director or an officer designated by the Director may be requested by a letter attached to Form I-694. The letter must set forth the reasons oral argument is desired in support of or in place of a brief. Oral argument will be denied in any case where the appeal is found to be frivolous, where oral argument will serve no useful purpose, or where written material or representations will appropriately serve your interests. If oral argument is granted, it must be held in person. The officer to whom the appeal is taken will designate in writing the time, date, and place of the oral argument. Oral argument in any case will be limited to 15 minutes, unless justification and arrangements for additional time are made in advance.

Counsel

In presenting and prosecuting Form I-694, you may be represented at no expense to the U.S. Government by counsel or a duly authorized representative. If you are represented, your counsel or representative must file a Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative (Form G-28) with Form I-694.

Where to File an Appeal?

This form must be mailed to the address given on the "Notice of Denial" and must be received within 30 days of the date noted on the USCIS letter of denial. The 30-day period for submitting an appeal begins 3 days after the notice of denial is mailed. No extensions will be granted. Do not file the appeal at the AAO.

What Is the Filing Fee?

The filing fee for Form I-694 is $755. The fee will not be refunded regardless of the action taken. A separate cashier's check or money order must be submitted for each application. All fees must be submitted in the exact amount. No cash or personal checks will be accepted.

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your check or money order for the Form I-694 fee:

1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the check or money order payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security, unless:
 - A. If you live in Guam and are filing your petition there, make it payable to Treasurer, Guam; or
 - B. If you live in the U.S. Virgin Islands and are filing your petition there, make it payable to Commissioner of Finance of the Virgin Islands.

NOTE: Please spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials "USDHS" or "DHS." (Failure to include the proper form of payment will invalidate Form I-694 and will result in a rejection of the appeal. The initial filing date will not be retained. (Reference 8 C.F.R. 103.2(a)(7)(i).)

How to Check if the Fee Is Correct

The fee on this form is current as of the edition date appearing in the lower right corner of this page. However, because USCIS forms change periodically, you can verify if the fee is correct by following one of the steps below:

2. Review the Fee Schedule included in your form package, if you called us to request the form; or
3. Telephone our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 and ask for the fee information.

Notice to Those Making Payment by Check

If you send us a check, it will be converted into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours, and will be shown on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but we will keep a copy of it. If the EFT cannot be processed for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If the EFT cannot be completed because of insufficient funds, we may try to make the transfer up to two times.
