FY 2010

Please submit your survey data by February 25, 2011.

This survey collects data on research and development (R&D) expenditures at Federally Funded R&D Centers (FFRDCs). Please report R&D activities and expenditures for your organization's 2010 fiscal year.

The survey was previously known as the Survey of Research and Development Expenditures at FFRDCs. The instructions and definitions have been updated and two new questions have been added.

Survey Definitions and Instructions

Fiscal year (FY)

Please report data for your organization's 2010 fiscal year.

Research and development (R&D) expenditures

Please include all current operating expenditures for activities specifically organized to produce R&D outcomes. This includes basic research, applied research, and development funded by external sponsors or separately budgeted and accounted for by your organization using internal funds.

Research is systematic study directed toward fuller knowledge or understanding of the subject studied.

Basic research is undertaken primarily to acquire new knowledge without any particular application or use in mind.

Applied research is conducted to gain the knowledge or understanding to meet a specific, recognized need.

Development is the systematic use of the knowledge or understanding gained from research and practical experience directed toward the production of useful materials, devices, systems, or methods, including the design and development of prototypes and processes.

R&D includes :	R&D does not include:
- Sponsored research (including federal and nonfederal sponsors) - Internal funds separately budgeted for individual R&D projects - Recovered and unrecovered indirect costs (see definitions in Question 1) - Equipment purchased from R&D project accounts - R&D funds passed through to a subrecipient organization - Clinical trials - Research training grants (such as NIH K awards and T32 grants)	- Outreach programs - R&D conducted by staff at outside institutions that is not accounted for in your financial records - Capital projects (i.e. construction or renovation of research facilities)

Question 1. How much of your total expenditures for separately budgeted research and development (R&D) came from the following sources in FY 2010? (See definition of R&D on the previous page.)

- Report the original source of funds, when possible. For example, if you received federal funds from another organization, report that amount under “U.S. federal government.”
- In rows a, b, c, d, and f: Include both direct and recovered indirect costs. Recovered indirect costs are reimbursements for Facilities and Administrative (F&A) costs that your organization receives from external sponsors.

Question 3. What amounts of your FY 2010 R&D expenditures were for basic research, applied research, and development?
