

SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION Alternative Creditworthiness Assessment

Purpose of this Form

Pursuant to Section 738 of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2010 (P.L. 111 7) U.S. Government agencies must assess the creditworthiness of all new travel card applicants prior to issuing a card. Creditworthiness assessments are an important internal control to ensure that charge cardholders are financially responsible. The information collected on this form is only required in the circumstance when obtaining a credit score is not possible. Failure to furnish requested information may delay or prevent action on your application for employment.

Providing Social Security Numbers is purely voluntary. Social Security Numbers are used to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Executive Order 9397, as amended, gives Federal agencies discretion to use this number to help identify individuals in agency records.

Disclosure of Information

The information you give us is for the purpose of making a Creditworthiness assessment to determine whether you possess a satisfactory credit history; we will protect it from unauthorized disclosure. The collection, maintenance, and disclosure of credit information are governed by the Privacy Act. If you are not offered employment this form will be destroyed at the end of the employment selection process. However, if you become an employee of the Agency this form will become part of your personnel file and will be maintained in a Privacy Act system of records. The Small Business Administration has published notice in the Federal Register at 74 FR 14890 (2009) describing the system of records in which your records will be maintained. You may obtain a copy of the notice from the person who gave you this form. The information on this form and information that we collect during an assessment may be disclosed without your consent as a routine use as permitted by the Privacy Act (5 USC 552a (b)). Some of these routine uses include:

- (1) To a Congressional office when the office is inquiring on the individual's behalf;
- (2) To Agency volunteers, interns, grantees, experts and contractors who have been engaged by the Agency to assist in the performance of a service related to this system of records and who need access to the records in order to perform this activity.
- (3) To the Department of Justice (DOJ) when any of the following is a party to litigation or has an interest in such litigation, and the Agency determines the records are relevant and necessary to the litigation: (1) The agency, or any of its components; (2) Any employee of the agency in his or her official capacity, or in an individual capacity where the DOJ has agreed to represent the employee; or (3) The United States Government, where the agency determines that litigation is likely to affect the agency or any of its components.
- (4) In a proceeding before a court, or adjudicative body, or a dispute resolution body before which the agency is authorized to appear or before which any of the persons or entities listed above is a party to, or has an interest in the litigation; and the Agency determines that such records are relevant and necessary to the litigation.

If you have questions or concerns regarding the disclosure of information or routine uses under the Privacy Act, you may contact the Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts Office, 409 Third Street, SW, Washington, DC 20416 or foia@sba.gov.

PLEASE NOTE: The estimated burden for completing this form is 15 minutes per response.
