

Tax Check Waiver

I am signing this waiver to permit the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to release information about me which would otherwise be confidential. This information will be used in connection with applications for appointment to membership in the Taxpayer Advocacy Panel (TAP). This information will also be used to verify returning TAP members' continuing tax compliance with the terms of this waiver as a condition for continued membership in the TAP. This waiver is made pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 6103(c).

I request that the IRS' designated Local Taxpayer Advocate release the following information to the appropriate IRS officials, including, but not limited to, the Director, Taxpayer Advocacy Panel.

box per question

1. Have you failed to timely file a Federal tax return by the required due date (determined with regard to any extension(s) of time for filing) for any of the last three years for which filing of a return was required? Yes No
(Note: If the filing date [without regard to extensions] and normal processing period for the most recent year's return has not yet elapsed on the date IRS receives this waiver, and the IRS records do not indicate a return for the most recent year, the "last three years" will mean the three years preceding the year for which returns are currently being filed and processed.)
2. Have you failed to pay any tax, penalty, or interest liability during the current or last three calendar years within ten (10) days of the date on which the IRS gave notice of the amount due and requested payment? Yes No
3. Are you now or have you ever been under investigation for misdemeanor or criminal offenses? Yes No
4. Have any civil penalties for fraud been assessed against you during the current or last three calendar years? Yes No
5. If a return for any of the last three years was not filed, please explain why in the Comments Section on page 2. If there was insufficient income to meet filing requirements or filing requirements were met by filing with a foreign tax agency (e.g., Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands), please describe the circumstances in the Comments Section on page 2.

The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that when we ask you information about yourself, we state our legal right to do so, tell you why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it , and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory. Our legal right to ask you for the information is 5 U.S.C. 301 and Executive Order (E.O.) 9397. We are asking for this information to determine your suitability as an employee (direct hire or contracted), consultant or advisor of the Internal Revenue Service.

If you do not provide us with this information, it may adversely affect our ability to consider you. Any adverse information will be shared with the appropriate IRS office(s) and may be disclosed to other federal agencies as required by law. Requesting your Social Security Number, under authority E.O. 9397, is also voluntary and no right, benefit, or privilege provided by law will be denied as a result of refusal to disclose it.
