

HIGH SCHOOL LONGITUDINAL STUDY OF 2009

We've surveyed the students,
now we need YOU to complete the parent survey.
Your participation provides valuable information that will help
to improve our nation's education system.

The survey will cover your family's background, your child's school experiences and activities at home, your ninth-grader's future, and your opinions about your student's school.

Please help us by completing this «TIME»-minute interview by March 31,
and we will send you $«INC_AMT» as a token of our appreciation.

LOGIN: <https://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls/Parent/login.aspx>

Study ID: «parentid»

Password: «password»

Or call 1-877-282-4757 to complete the survey by phone.

THANK YOU FOR PARTICIPATING.

The High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09) is a national study of ninth-grade students and their parents, teachers, school administrators, and counselors. HSLs:09 will follow students over time to understand what factors influence students' learning and development. RTI International is conducting this study for the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences. For questions regarding the survey, please call the HSLs Help Desk at 1-877-282-4757, or you can e-mail us at hsls-survey@rti.org.

HIGH SCHOOL LONGITUDINAL STUDY OF 2009

We've surveyed the students,
now we need YOU to complete the parent survey.
Your participation provides valuable information that will help
to improve our nation's education system.

The survey will cover your family's background, your child's school experiences
and activities at home, your ninth-grader's future, and your opinions about your student's school.

Please help us by completing this «TIME»-minute interview by March 31.

LOGIN: <https://surveys.nces.ed.gov/hsls/Parent/login.aspx>

Study ID: «parentid»

Password: «password»

Or call 1-877-282-4757 to complete the survey by phone.

THANK YOU FOR PARTICIPATING.

The High School Longitudinal Study of 2009 (HSLs:09) is a national study of ninth-grade students and their parents, teachers, school administrators, and counselors. HSLs:09 will follow students over time to understand what factors influence students' learning and development. RTI International is conducting this study for the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in the U.S. Department of Education's Institute of Education Sciences. For questions regarding the survey, please call the HSLs Help Desk at 1-877-282-4757, or you can e-mail us at hsls-survey@rti.org.