Privacy Advisory Statement & Informed Consent Information

This notice informs you of the purpose of the 2010 Post-Election Voting Survey of Overseas Civilians and how the findings of these surveys will be used. It also provides information about the privacy advisory and about informed consent.

AUTHORITY: The Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act of 1986, Section 101.b (1), 42 USC §1973ff.

PRINCIPAL PURPOSE: Information collected in this survey will be used to research areas where the electoral process can be improved for overseas civilians. Reports will be provided to the President of the United States, the United States Congress, the Office of the Secretary of Defense, and the Federal Voting Assistance Program. Findings will be used in reports and testimony provided to Congress. Some findings may be published by the Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC) or in professional journals, or presented at conferences, symposia, and scientific meetings. Data could be used in future research and datasets may be analyzed by researchers outside of DMDC. Reports on results from these surveys will be posted on the Web: <http://www.fvap.gov/reference/index.html>. In none of these cases will survey responses be reported for identifiable individual(s).

ROUTINE USES: None.

DISCLOSURE: Providing information on this survey is voluntary. Most people take 30 minutes to complete the survey. There is no penalty or loss of benefits to which you are entitled if you choose not to respond. However, maximum participation is encouraged so that the data will be complete and representative. Your survey responses will be kept private to the extent permitted by law. Identifying information will be used only by government and contractor staff engaged in, and for purposes of, the survey research.

SURVEY ELIGIBILITY AND POTENTIAL BENEFITS: DMDC has selected you to participate in this survey effort, non-Federal civilians or citizens residing overseas or outside the United States who have registered with their embassy or consulate. This is your chance to be heard on issues that affect the overseas voting experience. While there is no direct benefit for your individual participation, your responses on this survey make a difference.

STATEMENT OF RISK: The data collection procedures are not expected to involve any risk or discomfort to you. The only risk to you is accidental or unintentional disclosure of the data you provide. However, the government and its contractors have a number of policies and procedures to ensure that survey data are safe and protected, and, no identifying information (name, address, Social Security Number) is being collected as part of the survey. Government and contractor staff members have been trained to protect survey data.

If you experience any difficulties taking the survey, please contact the Survey Processing Center by sending an e-mail to PEV2Survey@osd.pentagon.mil. If you have concerns about your rights as a research participant, please contact: Ms. Caroline Miner, Human Research Protection Program Manager for the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (P&R), HRPP@tma.osd.mil (703) 575-2677.

Once you start answering the survey, if you desire to withdraw your answers please notify the Survey Processing Center prior to January 11, 2011. Please include in the e-mail your Ticket Number. Unless withdrawn, partially completed survey data may be used after that date.
