Case Number: <XXXXXX>

Dear <Title & Last Name>:

As part of the Census Bureau's Count Question Resolution (CQR) Program, we received an inquiry from <adjacent GU Name> expressing their concerns about the 2010 Census housing unit/group quarters counts.

The CQR Program accepts challenges to official 2010 Census counts of housing units and group quarters population received from state, local and tribal officials or their designated representatives in the United States and Puerto Rico. Additional information regarding the CQR program is available at www.2010census.gov/about/cqr.php.

We reviewed the documentation that <adjacent GU Name> provided in conjunction with the official 2010 Census records as part of our research to resolve their inquiry. Our research found an error in the geographic assignment of housing units/group quarters related to the legal boundary of <GU name>.

This geographic assignment error(s) affect(s) <GU Name> and <adjacent GU Name> and the corrections will impact the official population and housing unit counts. The updated census tract and block counts are available at <website>.

We will soon send you a Certification Letter from the Director of the Census Bureau stating the corrected housing units and associated population counts for <GU Name>. If you or your staff would like to request a printed copy of your CQR results, or have any questions, you may contact the CQR Program Office at 1-301-763-9329.

Dear <Title & Last Name>:

This is in reference to your Count Question Resolution (CQR) inquiry.

The purpose of this letter is to notify you that we have not completed our research. Sometimes the review process takes more time because we need to research clerical records or return the case to one of our regional offices. Once our research is complete, we will send you a letter documenting the results.

Thank you for your efforts to ensure that the 2010 Census counts are as accurate as possible. If there are further questions, please contact the CQR Program Office at 1-301-763-9329.

CQR STATEMENT OF REVISED COUNTS

<Date>

FROM THE DIRECTOR
U.S. CENSUS BUREAU

This is an official statement of the revised 2010 Census population and housing counts, including corrections made through <date>, for <GU name>.

According to the official records of the TWENTY-THIRD DECENNIAL CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES, on file at the U.S. Census Bureau, the following are the revised counts as of April 1, 2010 for <GU name>:

Population..... <#>
Housing Units..... <#>

Sincerely,

Robert M. Groves
Director

This statement is being sent to the <insert appropriate highest elected official title of GU (e.g. HEO or tribal chair), of GU name, the appropriate Secretary of State/Commonwealth/District title, and other appropriate state/commonwealth/district officials>.

Census counts used for Congressional apportionment, legislative redistricting and the 2010 Census data products will remain unchanged. The Census Bureau will include the corrections in the errata information, which will be available via the Internet on the American FactFinder system, and use them specifically to modify the decennial census file for use in annual postcensal estimates beginning in December 2012.

Details regarding the Census Bureau's calculation of these figures are attached. If you require additional information, you may contact the Census Bureau's Count Question Resolution Program Office at 1-301-763-9329 and refer to Case Number <XXXXXX>.

CQR STATEMENT OF REVISED COUNTS

(Example of the POP Count table that will be provided with this letter.)

Case Number: <XXXXXX>

Dear <Title & Last Name>:

Thank you for your letter expressing your concerns about the 2010 Census counts for <GU name>.

We reviewed the documentation you provided in conjunction with official 2010 Census records as part of our research to resolve your question(s). Our research found an error in the geographic assignment of housing units/group quarters within the legal boundary of <GU name>. The updated census tract and block counts are available at <website>.

However, since the error does not change the population or housing counts for <GU name>; there is no revision to the 2010 Census counts. This completes our review.

Thank you for your efforts to ensure that the 2010 Census counts are as accurate as possible. If there are further concerns, please contact the CQR Program Office at 1-301-763-9329.

<Case Number <XXXXXX>

Dear <Title & Last Name>:

Thank you for your letter expressing concerns about the 2010 Census counts for <GU name> as part of the 2010 Census Count Question Resolution (CQR) Program.

We reviewed the documentation you provided and have determined your challenge is not within the scope of the 2010 Census CQR Program. The challenges that are in scope for the CQR Program include challenges to:

1. Correct inaccurate or recording of boundaries legally in effect on January 1, 2010;
2. Correct the placement of living quarters and/or associated population within the correct governmental unit boundaries and 2010 Census tabulation blocks; and
3. Add or delete specific living quarters and/or people associated with them, identified during the census process, but erroneously included as duplicates or excluded due to processing errors.

Please, also refer to www.2010census.gov/about/cqr.php to review the CQR Federal Register Notice or for additional details about the program. This completes the Census Bureau review of your submission to the 2010 Census CQR Program.

Thank you for your efforts to ensure that the 2010 Census counts are as accurate as possible. If there are further questions, please contact the CQR Program Office at 1-301-763-9329 or send a message to dmd.cqr@census.gov.
