Patient number:

The Effective Date Coverage of Your Current {insert type}
Services Will End: {insert effective date}

- Your Medicare health plan and/or provider have determined that Medicare probably will not pay for your current {insert type} services after the effective date indicated above.
  - You may have to pay for any services you receive after the above date.

Your Right to Appeal This Decision

- You have the right to an immediate, independent medical review (appeal) of the decision to end Medicare coverage of these services. Your services will continue during the appeal.
  - If you choose to appeal, the independent reviewer will ask for your opinion. The reviewer also will look at your medical records and/or other relevant information. You do not have to prepare anything in writing, but you have the right to do so if you wish.
  - If you choose to appeal, you and the independent reviewer will each receive a copy of the detailed explanation about why your coverage for services should not continue. You will receive this detailed notice only after you request an appeal.
  - If you choose to appeal, and the independent reviewer agrees services should no longer be covered after the effective date indicated above, neither Medicare nor your plan will pay for these services after that date.
  - If you stop services no later than the effective date indicated above, you will avoid financial liability.

How to Ask For an Immediate Appeal

- You must make your request to your Quality Improvement Organization (also known as a QIO). A QIO is the independent reviewer authorized by Medicare to review the decision to end these services.
- Your request for an immediate appeal should be made as soon as possible, but no later than noon of the day before the effective date indicated above.
- The QIO will notify you of its decision as soon as possible, generally no later than the effective date of this notice.
- Call your QIO at: {insert name and number of QIO} to appeal, or if you have questions.

See the back of this notice for more information.

Other Appeal Rights:

- If you miss the deadline for requesting an immediate appeal with the QIO, you still may request an expedited appeal from your Medicare Health plan. If your request does not meet the criteria for an expedited review, your plan will review the decision under its rules for standard appeals. Please see your Evidence of Coverage for more information.
  - Contact your plan or 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227), or TTY: 1-877-486-2048 for more information about the appeals process.
