About the Privacy Act

The Social Security Act (Sections 204, the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act) collect the facts on this form. This form you do not give us the facts we ask for, we may not be able to approve your waiver request. If we cannot collect the overpayment, we may ask the Justice Department to collect it.

Sometimes the law requires us to give out the facts on this form without your consent. We must give these facts to another person or government agency if Federal law requires that we do so or to do the research and audits needed to monitor and improve the programs we manage.

We may also give these facts to the Justice Department to investigate and prosecute violations of the Social Security Act or we may use the facts in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with those of other Federal, State, or local government agencies. All the Agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid for or managed by the Federal government. Another use is to identify and collect overpayments or to collect overdue loans under these benefits programs.

Request for Waiver of Overpayment Recovery or Changes in Repayment Rate

Sections 204(a) and 1631(b) of the Social Security Act authorize us to collect the information contained on this form. The information you provide is used to determine whether we can waive collection of the overpayment or change the amount you may pay us back each month. Your response is voluntary. However, failure to provide all or part of the requested information may affect the processing of this form and our decision to waive collection of your overpayment or change in your repayment rate.

We rarely use this information provided on this form for any other purpose other than the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage.
2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans' Affairs); and
3. To facilitate statistical research, audit or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in Systems of Record Notice 60-0094 (Recovery of Overpayments, Accounting and Reporting/Debt Management System). This Notice, additional information about this form, and any other information regarding our programs, are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.
