

FAFSA Electronic and Pre-filled FAFSA Electronic (Also known as 'FAA Access to CPS on-line')

FAFSA Electronic is an Internet-based tool that financial aid administrators (FAA's) use to enter FAFSA application data, view student information, make corrections, check batch status, and request PINs for students.

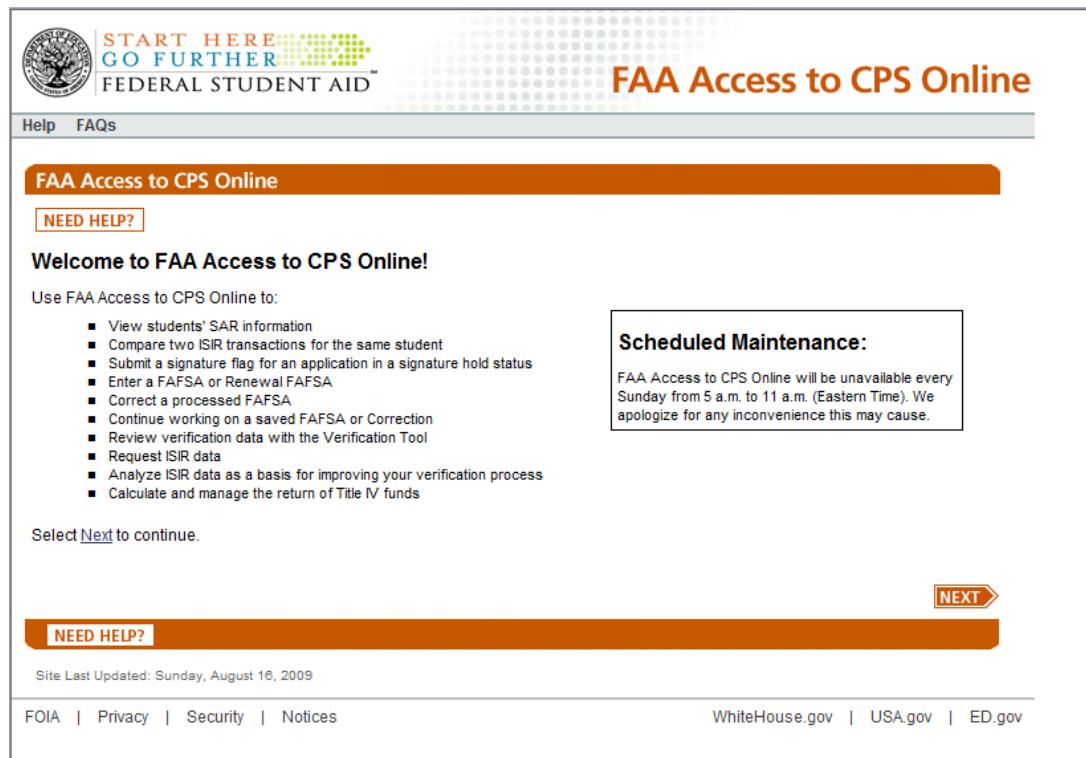

It is located at www.faaaccess.ed.gov. Note that a PIN is required to access student information.

FAFSA Electronic (Also known as 'FAA Access')

The screenshot shows the homepage of the FAA Access to CPS Online website. At the top, there is a banner with the U.S. Department of Education logo, the text 'START HERE GO FURTHER', and 'FEDERAL STUDENT AID'. Below the banner, there are links for 'Help' and 'FAQs'. The main title 'FAA Access to CPS Online' is displayed in large orange text. A red button labeled 'NEED HELP?' is visible. The main content area features a 'Welcome to FAA Access to CPS Online!' message. Below it, a list of tasks includes: View students' SAR information, Compare two ISIR transactions for the same student, Submit a signature flag for an application in a signature hold status, Enter a FAFSA or Renewal FAFSA, Correct a processed FAFSA, Continue working on a saved FAFSA or Correction, Review verification data with the Verification Tool, Request ISIR data, Analyze ISIR data as a basis for improving your verification process, and Calculate and manage the return of Title IV funds. To the right, a box titled 'Scheduled Maintenance:' states that the service will be unavailable every Sunday from 5 a.m. to 11 a.m. (Eastern Time). At the bottom, there is a 'NEXT' button with a right-pointing arrow, a 'NEED HELP?' button, and footer links for FOIA, Privacy, Security, Notices, WhiteHouse.gov, USA.gov, and ED.gov. A note at the bottom indicates the site was last updated on Sunday, August 16, 2009.
