Dear _____ Resident:

I am pleased to inform you that the U. S. Department of Education has selected your household to participate in the 2011 National Household Education Survey. This survey collects information on the education of people in the United States. The study provides vital information that is used to improve education for everyone – information that is not available anywhere else. The results will help policymakers, researchers, and educators understand the educational needs of our diverse population in changing times. This survey is about all of us!

Your household was chosen at random as part of this scientific study and we cannot replace you with someone else. Although your participation is voluntary, your answers will make sure that households like yours are counted. Every type of household in America needs to be included in the survey.

You should receive the survey in the mail within the next week.

- It usually takes 5 minutes or less to fill out the survey.
- We will include a small token of our appreciation for your participation in this study in the envelope.

If you would like more information on the study, please visit <http://surveys.nces.ed.gov/nhes/> or contact Westat, the company conducting this study on our behalf, at 1.800.880.3033.

Thank you in advance for your assistance with this important study.

Sincerely,

Stuart Kerachsky
Deputy Commissioner
National Center for Education
Statistics

Authorization and Confidentiality of Information

The National Center for Education Statistics within the U.S. Department of Education is authorized to conduct this survey under Section 9543, 20 U.S. Code. Westat, a private research company has been contracted to conduct this study for the U.S. Department of Education. Your participation is voluntary. Be assured that your answers will only be used for statistical purposes and that your individual responses will be protected to the fullest extent allowable under law (Section 9573, 20 U.S. Code). Your responses will be combined with those of others to produce statistics about the educational experiences of all Americans.

Dear [CITY] Household:

The U.S. Department of Education is conducting an important national research study about families and education and we need your help. The brief questionnaire enclosed will help us find households with children and youths. We will be asking households around the country about:

- the ways that schools and families work together to promote learning;
- the learning experiences of young children who have not yet started school;
- the learning experiences and resources available to homeschoolers.

Your household was chosen as part of this scientific study and we cannot replace you with someone else. Although your participation is voluntary, your answers will make sure that households like yours are counted.

This short questionnaire is the first step in a study that provides vital information that is used to improve education for people of all ages - information that is not available anywhere else. The results will help policymakers, researchers, and educators understand the educational needs of our diverse population in changing times. This survey is about all of our families.

Please be assured that all information you provide may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law (Section 9573, 20 U.S. Code). Your responses will be combined with those of others to produce statistics about all Americans' educational experience.

Please fill out the enclosed survey and mail it back in the postage paid envelope provided.

- It usually takes 5 minutes or less to fill out these initial questions, and only a few seconds if no one in your household is age 20 or younger.
- If your household does not include anyone age 20 or younger, fill out the first question in the enclosed form and return it in the envelope that is provided.

We have enclosed $2 as a token of our appreciation. If you have questions or need assistance, please call Westat (the research company doing this survey for us) at 1-888-880-3033. You can find more information about this study online at <http://surveys.nces.ed.gov/nhes/>.

We understand and appreciate that people have many demands on their time, so we are grateful for your generous cooperation. Thank you.

Dear Parent of {CHILD}:

A few weeks ago your household helped us by completing a short survey for the U.S. Department of Education. Thank you for your response. I'm now asking you to help us by completing the final part of this important study. The study is used by educators, policymakers, and researchers to understand the educational experiences and needs of all children in the United States.

The survey you returned to us stated that the child listed below lives in this household. When completing the enclosed survey please answer about:

{Child, age X, Xth grade}

This national educational study will provide much needed information about children's early learning, the programs in which children participate, and how families prepare children for school. Although your participation is voluntary, your response to this survey is important as it will help provide a clear picture of children's educational experiences in the United States. Please be assured that all information you give may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose except as required by law (Section 9573, 20 US Code). Your responses will be combined with those of others to produce national statistics about children's educational experiences.

The National Center for Education Statistics, within the Department of Education, is authorized to conduct this survey (Section 9543, 20 US Code). Westat, a research firm under contract with the U.S. Department of Education, is administering the survey. More details about the study are provided on the back of the enclosed survey and online at <http://surveys.nces.ed.gov/nhes/>.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation. The enclosed survey should only take about 20 minutes to complete. Please return the survey in the enclosed envelope. If you have any questions about the study or need replacement materials please call Westat toll-free at 1-888-880-3033.

Dear Parent of {CHILD}:

About three weeks ago, we mailed a survey to be completed by a member of your household about the child listed below.

{Child, age X, Xth grade}

We have not yet received a response from your household. You were sent that survey (and the replacement enclosed with this letter) because your household returned a short survey for the U.S. Department of Education. We are writing again because your household's response is important in ensuring that the U.S. Department of Education obtains accurate results.

Please fill out the enclosed survey and mail it back in the postage-paid envelope as soon as possible. It should only take 20 minutes or less to fill out this survey.

As mentioned before, this is the final step in a study that provides nationally representative information on homeschooling practices and resources in the United States.

If you have questions or need assistance, Westat (the research company doing this survey for us) will be happy to help and can be reached by telephone at 1-888-880-3033. More details about the study are provided on the back of the enclosed survey and online at <http://surveys.nces.ed.gov/nhes/>.

Sincerely,

Stuart Kerachsky

Dear Parent of {CHILD}:

I had written in {MONTH} to request that your household complete a brief questionnaire about the child listed below. The child was selected based on an earlier survey that you filled out.

{Child, age X, Xth grade}

Unfortunately, we have not yet received your completed questionnaire. You were sent those surveys (and the replacement enclosed with this letter) because your household filled out a short survey for the U.S. Department of Education. In that short survey, you told us this child lived here, and we have randomly selected that child to ask about in this follow-up survey.

We have mailed this third replacement questionnaire because of the importance of your response.

As mentioned before, this survey is the final step in a study that provides valuable information about children's early learning, the programs in which children participate, and how families prepare children for school. Your response to this survey will help provide a clear picture of children's educational experiences in the United States.

Please fill out the enclosed survey and mail it back in the postage-paid envelope as soon as possible.
