

Dear Parents/Legal Guardian,

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission is hosting a poster contest for middle school students as part of an outreach effort to raise awareness about the poisonous gas carbon monoxide (CO).

How to Enter

- Submit the contest entry on the Web at www.cpsc.gov/COcontest/.
- The entry must include a jpeg or pdf (no larger than 1 MB each) of both:
 - o A completed Contest Submission and Parental Consent Form (attached) and
 - o Poster on the dangers of CO in the home
- CPSC must receive entry no later than February 27, 2015.

Official Contest Rules

For more information on the contest, including the official contest rules and how to enter please visit www.cpsc.gov/COcontest/. You may contact the contest administrators at COcontest@cpsc.gov.

For Teachers

Teachers who wish to submit posters on behalf of their students must submit a completed Contest Submission and Parental Consent Form, signed by the child's parent or guardian, for each child submitting a poster.

Children's Online Privacy

CPSC requires verifiable parental consent before it collects, uses or discloses personal information about children under the age of 13. Parents or Guardians must complete the Contest Submission and Parental Consent Form. CPSC's policies governing what information is collected from children, how CPSC uses the information and CPSC's disclosure practices for the information are located at www.cpsc.gov/COcontest/.

Sincerely,
CPSC
