Dear Payroll Manager:

A data collection specialist from the Bureau of Labor Statistics will soon telephone to ask your company's help with determining the nation's monthly counts of employment. The person whose name appears below will be the one who will be calling you. The focus of this call will be to gather information about your payroll that includes the 12th day of the month.

The Data Collection Specialist assigned to your

The call is to explain the reasons for including your company in the production of the nation's employment numbers and answer any questions you might have. We also want to:

- Confirm your business address and location.
- Confirm whether we have the correct state Unemployment Insurance account number (UI#) for your company.
- Ask how frequently employees of your company are paid and whether you have more than one payroll.

Your company was selected a part of a scientific sample of businesses throughout the United States. The BLS will use the information you provide for statistical purposes only and will hold the information in confidence to the full extent permitted by law. In accordance with the Confidential Information Protection and Statistical Efficiency Act (Title 5 of Public Law 107-347), the information you provide to the BLS will not be disclosed in identifiable form without your informed consent.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation. Your assistance in producing this important information about our nation's economy is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Ron Reiersen

Thank you for your help! The Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) will use the information you provide in determining the nation's job count as part of the Current Employment Statistics (CES) program.

The CES is the nation's monthly indicator of employment trends. This monthly report of the nation's employment is depended on by the Federal Reserve, government agencies, banks, and others to assess the nation's economy and to help make decisions about their operations.

On the first Friday of every month major newspapers across the country publish the nation's job count. BLS is responsible for compiling these statistics from information gathered from thousands of firms like yours. This statistic, along with other leading economic indicators produced by BLS provides businesses with information critical in planning for growth and success.

You can find data from the Current Employment Statistics program, along with information from other BLS programs, on our web site, <http://www.bls.gov/>.

If you have any questions about reporting or the CES program, please contact the Data Collection Specialist listed on page 1 of this form.

Your assistance in maintaining the quality of our nation's economic data is greatly appreciated.
