LENDER ADVANTAGE INITIATIVE

LENDER'S INSTRUCTIONS TO FORM 2301, PART B

The following directions provide assistance to the Lender in completing the Lender's portion of SBA Form 2301, Part B. Each lettered section corresponds to the same lettered section on the form. If a particular section or entry is not specified in these instructions, no special directions are required to complete that entry. If necessary, use separate sheets of paper for additional space to complete each section. ALL BLANKS MUST BE COMPLETED - USE N/A IF "BLANK" DOES NOT APPLY.

For the Small/Rural Lender Advantage Program and Community Advantage (non-delegated), the Lender must submit to the SBA Standard 7(a) Loan Guaranty Processing Center the following documents:

1. Complete, signed and dated SBA Form 2301, Part A, Lender Advantage Initiative, including the separate Section D(s). (All principals and guarantors need to complete, sign and date Section D but only one principal needs to complete, sign and date the entire form.)
2. Complete, signed and dated SBA Form 2301, Part B, Lender's Application for Guaranty.
3. Complete, signed and dated SBA Form 2301, Part C, Eligibility Questionnaire, including any additional information SBA requires due to any "false" responses indicated on the form. The lender and applicant must sign this form.
4. Copy of the lender's credit memorandum addressing all of the requirements set forth in the instructions.

If you have any credit or eligibility policy questions, refer to the current version of SOP 50-10 (as well as any applicable notices) which is available at www.sba.gov/aboutsba/sbaprograms/elending or contact your local district office or the 7(a) Loan Guaranty Processing Center (LGPC) by e-mailing your questions to 7aquestions@sba.gov or by telephone at 1-877-475-2435. (Please be sure to go over the entire application prior to contacting your local district office or center in order that all questions may be covered at the same time.)

For Small Loan Advantage and Community Advantage (delegated), the Lender must use E-tran to request an SBA loan number for the loan. The Lender must retain in its Lender files the following documents:

1. Complete, signed and dated SBA Form 2301, Part A, Lender Advantage Initiative, including the separate Section D(s). (All principals and guarantors need to complete, sign and date Section D but only one principal needs to complete, sign and date the entire form.)
2. Complete, signed and dated SBA Form 2301, Part B, Lender's Application for Guaranty.

(Please note that market value should be based on prudent lending standards and values should be supported by appropriate documentation.)
2. Liquidation Value - The lender must use its assessment of the liquidation value of the collateral, net of existing lien(s), based on its liquidation experience of similar collateral.
3. Existing Lien(s) – Enter any existing balance outstanding on each piece of collateral that will have a senior lien to SBA loan.
4. Enter lienholder's name.
5. For real estate, attach separate document with the full address of any real estate taken as collateral.

Section D: ELIGIBILITY

1. For Small/Rural Lender Advantage and Community Advantage (non-delegated), the Lender must complete, sign and date Form 2301, Part C, Eligibility Questionnaire. If this section is not complete, the application will not be accepted by SBA for processing.
2. For Small Loan Advantage and Community Advantage (delegated), the Lender must complete, sign and date Form 2301, Part D, Eligibility Checklist, and retain in Lender's file.

Section E: FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Lender must review and analyze the following financial information from the Applicant. Retain these statements in the Lender's file. (Do not submit these financial statements to SBA unless requested.)

- a. For an existing business or for a change of ownership, business financial statements for the last three years. In addition, if the most recent year-end statement is over 3 months old, then an interim financial statement is required where the date is not more than 90 days old at the time of the application.
- b. If three years of historical financial statements are not available or if historical cashflow does not cover all existing and proposed debt, a projection of earnings for at least one year including an explanation of the assumptions. (Also required for a new business request.)
- c. For any affiliates of the small business, business financial statements for the last three years.

Lender must submit IRS 4506-T (www.sba.gov/aboutsba/sbaprograms/elending/lgpc/forms) to the IRS on the year-end Small Business Applicant's financial statements. (Note: No verification is required on those financial statements whose period ends within 6 months of the date of submission to the IRS.) A copy of the completed IRS 4506-T plus the IRS verification must be retained in the Lender's file. Include date of submission to IRS on Form 2301.

(Note: Any significant difference between the financial statements submitted by the Applicant and the IRS verification must be reasonably explained in the Lender's loan file prior to loan closing.)

Section F: LENDER COMMENTS

The Lender is required to submit to SBA the Lender's Credit Memorandum ("Credit Memorandum"). The Credit Memorandum must meet reasonable and prudent standards for the commercial lending industry and include, at a minimum, the following. (For PLP loans, the Lender must retain the Lender's Credit Memorandum in the Lender's file for possible review by SBA at a future date.)

The Credit Memorandum must include at a minimum:

Description of business including competition:

- Description of the history and nature of the business.
- Description of and comments on the business plan including: 1) Management experience of principal(s), particularly in the industry; 2) Financial condition of the business; and 3) Nature of any competition.

Credit Analysis:

- Spread of proforma Business Balance Sheet (current business balance sheet + changes in assets and liabilities as a result of the loan, other debt, any required equity injection and use of proceeds).
- Ratio calculations (based on the proforma Balance Sheet and historical and projected Income Statements) for the following financial ratio benchmarks: Current Ratio, Debt/Tangible Net Worth, Debt Service Coverage and other ratios the lender considers significant for the business/industry (e.g., inventory turnover, receivables turnover, and payables turnover, etc.)
- Analysis of working capital adequacy to support projected sales growth in next 12 months.
- Analysis/calculation of cash flow relative to debt service: (1) Show how historical cash flow would cover total debt service after the SBA loan. (Lenders may use "rule of thumb" cash flow, defined as earnings before interest and taxes, plus depreciation and amortization, less total debt service. Each component (including total cash flows) must be shown.); and (2) show how projected cash flow covers debt service after the SBA loan. (Lenders may use "rule of thumb" cash flow as defined in (1).) Also, provide an analysis of the reasonableness of the assumptions supporting the projected cash flow.
- Explanation of and justification for the refinancing of any debt as part of the loan request, particularly Same Institution Debt (SID). (Refinancing of SID ineligible for PLP processing.)
- Discussion of any 1) Seller financing; 2) Stand-by agreements; 3) 90+day delinquencies; and/or 4) Trade disputes.
- Discussion of any bankruptcy filings or judgments.
- For a change of ownership only, discussion/analysis of business valuation (based on generally accepted valuation methods used for the pertinent industry) used to support the purchase price. (See SOP 50 10 5, Subpart B, Chapter 4, Paragraph II.C.5 for business valuation requirements.)
- Discussion of credit analysis including lender's rationale for recommending approval. Include any additional information the lender considers significant/relevant to the credit decision.

Collateral Analysis: Collateral Adequacy assessment (using liquidation values) in the event of default.

Technical Assistance: For Community Advantage, lenders need to ensure that their small business applicants respond to the questions covering the level of technical assistance they have received.

Comments or questions on the burden estimates should be sent to the SBA Desk Officer, Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Bldg., Room 10202, Washington, DC 20503 and or to U.S. Small Business Administration, Chief, AIB, 409 3rd St., SW, Washington DC 20416. PLEASE DO NOT SEND FORMS TO THIS ADDRESS.
