

RAND is an independent non-profit research organization based in Santa Monica, California. RAND does research to help improve policy.

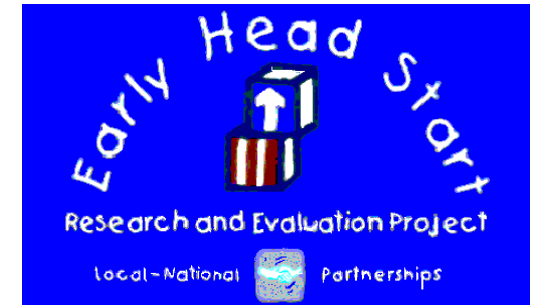

RAND has been asked to join the Early Head Start Study team.

Questions? Call
RAND Survey Director,
Kirsten Becker, at:

1-888-800-3748

Research funded by
The US Department of Health and Human Services

Questions and Answers

Why are you contacting me now?

- We hope to continue interviewing the children in this study and their caregivers. It will be important for us to reach as many families as possible. At this time we are only reaching out to you to update our records with your phone and address.

What are you asking me to do?

- You can update your contact information in one of three ways. You can mail back the form we sent you. You can call us toll free. Or you can go online and log in with your personal code that we gave you in the letter.
- Updating your information should take about 5-10 minutes

We are updating our records!

Mail Us

Fill out the enclosed form and return it in the postage paid envelope.

Call us

Call our toll-free number
(888) 800-3748

Or Visit Us Online

Visit our website at
<https://www.randsurvey.org/headstart/>

You can find your personal pin code in the letter
we sent you

Do I get anything for my time?

- Yes! We will send you a check for $15 to thank you for your time.

How did you get my contact information?

- We were given a list of all families who have taken part in this project in the past.

Will information I provide be safe?

- Yes! All of the information you give us will be used ONLY to contact you for this study.
- We keep your information encrypted and protected by passwords. Only people who work on the project have access to it.
- As you know, in papers and presentations the study never identifies parents or children by name.