Warning

This permit does not confer the right or privilege to conduct business contrary to State law or any other law. Whenever a person who possesses a permit under 18 U.S.C. Chapter 40 becomes a fugitive from justice; is an unlawful user of or addicted to marijuana, or any depressant or stimulant drug or narcotic drug, or (as these terms are defined in the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. 802) is adjudicated as a mental defective or is committed to a mental institution; is indicted, under information, or is convicted in any court of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, such person is prohibited from shipping or transporting any explosives in interstate or foreign commerce or from receiving any explosives which have been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce.

Conditions

1. This permit is not transferable and valid only for a single transaction involving the type and quantity of explosive materials specified on the permit.
2. The permittee shall present this permit at the time of acquiring, from a licensee, the explosive materials authorized by this permit.
3. The distributor (seller) shall, at the time distribution is made to the permittee, write on the face of this permit the transaction date, sign his/her name and indicate his/her license number, and return this permit to the permittee.

Notice To Buyer

Explosive materials must be stored in compliance with requirements set forth in 27 CFR Part 555. It shall be unlawful for any person to store any explosive materials in a manner not in conformity with these regulations. A buyer storing explosive materials should become familiar with storage requirements before storing explosive materials.

Please include your permit number on all correspondence with the Bureau.

Report all thefts of explosives to ATF (1-800-800-3855) and appropriate local authorities within twenty-four (24) hours.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

This request is in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction of 1995. The purpose of this information is to allow the permittee to have evidence that he/she lawfully acquired the explosives. It also shows that the seller lawfully disposed of explosives to a permittee. This form is subject to ATF inspection. The information is mandatory (18 U.S.C. 843f)).

The estimated average burden associated with this collection is 12 minutes per respondent or recordkeeper, depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be directed to Reports Management Officer, Document Services Branch, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, Washington, DC 20226.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.
