Invitation

As part of our research study, we are inviting people who fit the criteria to join us for in-person interviews (90 min.)/ phone interviews (75 min.).

Let me tell you a little about it before you decide. The session will last for (x min.), and we will be asking about your daily life activities, how you interact with technology and information sources, and about your thoughts and perceptions around taxes. We will ask you about getting the information you need to prepare your federal taxes, IRS-related information you’ve used, and about the organization and how it serves taxpayers. You will not be asked any particular or personal information about your taxes (for example, how much your return was or specific deductions information). Two professional interviewers will conduct the session.

For privacy purposes we will not associate any of your personally identifiable information (name, address etc.) with the session materials, instead, we will use a code number to identify you.

You will be compensated $100 for your time.

The session will be video and audio taped (audio only for telephone interviews) for use by our client for their internal research purposes. Your name and contact information will be kept private to the extent allowed by law. Before the interview, you will be asked to sign a ‘Consent to Participate’ and ‘Non-Disclosure’ Agreement (if phone interview, they will be asked to sign and return these documents by mail pre-interview).

The phone/in-person interview will be on (time/date TBD)/ held at our facility on (time/date TBD).

Are you interested in participating?

- YES (CONTINUE)
- NO (TERMINATE)

May I get your contact information?

Name _____

Address _____

Phone (Preferred) _____ (2nd) _____

Email (Preferred) _____ (2nd) _____

My supervisor will call you back to verify the information you’ve provided to me and to answer any questions you may have. We will send driving and parking directions to you (for in-person interviews), and will give you a reminder call a day or two before the interview.

Thank you—we’ll be in touch.

Interview

Introduction to the research

Hello, I am _____ from MAYA Design. Thank you for agreeing to spend this time with us today. We'd like to start by getting to know you a little better, we'll talk about how you use technology, and finally get into detailed questions about taxes.

The Paperwork Reduction Act requires that the IRS display an OMB control number on all public information requests. The OMB Control Number for this study is 1545-1349. The time estimated for your participation is 75 minutes for phone interviews and 90 minutes for in-person interviews. If you have any comments regarding the time estimates associated with this study or suggestions on making this process simpler, please write to the, Internal Revenue Service, Tax Products Coordinating Committee, SE:W:CAR:MP:T:T:SP, 1111 Constitution Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20224.

Getting to Know You

Objective: To obtain a picture of the participant's "day in the life" and help them relax as we begin the interview process.

1. Tell me a bit about your day-to-day life during the week. Does it differ on weekends?
2. Who is in your immediate family?

3. Are you employed?
 - How long have you been doing that?

 - Budgeting
 - Paying bills
2. Do you pay a professional to manage any of the following activities for you?
 - Investing
 - Financial planning, retirement planning
 - Accounting
 - Budgeting
 - Paying bills
3. Have you always done so?
4. What are the benefits of doing so?
5. How do you pay your bills? Do you prefer to pay your bills electronically? Online banking? Write checks?

Taxes

Objective: To understand the different facets of participant's experience with their taxes.

1. Did you file your federal income tax return for 2011?
 - a. If yes, did you file by the April deadline?
 - b. Do you always file on time?
 - c. If not, did you file an extension?
 - d. If you did not file by the deadline and did not get an extension, why not?
2. How did you file them? I'm going to read the following answers, and you can tell me which one applies to you.
 - a. I used a tax preparation service, such as H&R Block.
 - b. I went to a tax professional (accountant).
 - c. I did them myself using IRS forms and mailed them in.

- d. I did them myself using IRS forms, and filed them electronically.
 - e. I used a computer program such as TurboTax or other similar software.
 - i. Did you pay for the software?
 - ii. Did you use it at home? If not, where?
3. If you use a tax professional: when you go to the preparer, do you ask what steps he or she will take to file your taxes? Why or why not?
4. Did you get a refund?
 - a. If yes, how did that make you feel?
 - b. Did you receive it quickly, or not?
 - c. Did you get a check in the mail, or did you use direct deposit? Why do you choose that method of getting your refund?
 - d. Do you usually get a refund, or not? Why?
5. How would you describe the complexity of your taxes?
 - a. Are they pretty complex, fairly simple, or somewhere in between? Talk to me about that—what are the reasons for your answer?
6. Did you need any help/have questions when you filed your 2011 taxes? If not, what about past years? What questions did you have? Who did you go to, or what resources did you use, to get answers?
 - a. Did you get some advice or assistance from a professional tax preparer, whether paid or unpaid?
 - b. Did you get help from family member, friend, or acquaintance? Why them?
 - c. Did you go online? Did you do a search, or go directly to a site? Which site? Tell me about that process. When you got to the site, what was your experience like? Had you used that site before? What made it helpful to you, or not?
 - d. Did you contact the IRS? If so, how (IRS Customer Service 1-800 #, the IRS web site, a call to an IRS department or office, a fax or letter, a visit to one of their Taxpayer Assistance Centers, other?)
 - e. Did you use any IRS-related materials or services? If so, why?
 - f. Any other sources that I haven't mentioned?
 - g. Were any of these people and sources better than others to get the answers you needed? Which ones? Why?
7. Have you always filed taxes the same way? Why?
 - a. If not, what are the other ways you have filed, and why did things change?
 - b. What was the tipping point, for example, that made you go from preparing them yourself to using a tax professional?
8. Some people describe the entire activity of “doing their taxes” as two tasks. One is “preparation,” which is gathering receipts, W-2’s, and any other applicable paperwork. Two is actually sitting down to file them—to fill out the forms. In your opinion, what’s the easiest part of the preparation process for you?
9. What is the most difficult part of preparation?

10. Now, onto the second part. What's the easiest part of filing your taxes for you?
11. What's the most difficult part of filing of your taxes?
 - a. Determine whether certain sources of revenue are relevant to the IRS?
 - b. Making estimates for deductions/expenses?
 - c. Itemizing deductions/expenses?
 - d. Knowing whether or not you qualify for a credit?
 - e. Other? Tell me about that.
12. Is there anything tax-related that you think about after you've finished those tasks, after filing is done and it's "in the mail," so to speak?
13. Similarly, after you're done with those steps, have you ever had questions about your tax return? Where did you go to get answers?
14. When do you tend to file your taxes?
 - a. More than a month in advance of the deadline
 - b. One-two weeks in advance
 - c. The day before/day of the deadline
 - d. Other
 - e. Why is that?
15. What do you think of the language (words) and instructions the IRS uses on its tax forms? What about the language (words) IRS uses on its website or other communications you've seen?
 - a. Has the language (words) been designed in a way that's accessible and understandable to taxpayers? Why or why not?
16. What do you think of the language (words) used in non-IRS provided websites, programs like TurboTax, notices, YouTube, emails, and/or other communication methods related to taxes? How would you compare how understandable they are with IRS-related items? Why?
17. Have you ever used any of the following IRS-provided information sources? Are you familiar with them? If you have used them, why did you do so? Tell me about the experience.
 - a) www.IRS.gov (IRS website)
 - b) IRS2Go smart phone application
 - c) The IRS's 1-800 Customer Phone Service

- a. How would you rate it on a scale of 1-10, with one being not confident at all and 10 being completely confident?
20. What “keeps you up at night” about your taxes? Why?
21. Have you ever made an unintentional mistake on a tax return?
- a. (Prompt if needed: like forgetting to sign it online or on paper, or making simple math error?)
 - b. What happened and how did you find out (did you get a notice)?
 - c. Was the IRS communication about the error in clear language (notice or letter)?
 - d. How did you handle it?
 - e. How was it resolved?
 - f. How would you describe the experience—for example, was it nerve-racking, or was it fine? Why?
22. How proactive do you tend to be in planning for and minimizing your tax burden throughout the year?
- a. (Prompt if needed: For example, do you keep receipts and track expenses, or make charitable contributions?)
23. When I say the words “Tax Code” or “Tax Laws”, what do you think about? How do you feel?
- a) (Prompt if needed: exciting, scary, boring?)
 - b) Are you interested in Tax Laws and how the laws changes can affect your situation? Or are you not interested at all? Why?
 - c) Do you think that changes in tax laws have a significant effect on your situation/life?
24. When your tax documents (W-2s, e.g.) start to come in (via mail or email) do you put them somewhere special to keep track of them until it’s time to file? Where do you keep them?
25. Do you keep copies of your returns from year to year? Are they paper or electronic copies? Where do you keep them (in-home office, drawer in den, etc.)?
26. Once your taxes are done and you know that you’re getting a refund, what kind of planning do you do, knowing you’ll be getting money back?

27. Was your tax refund amount ever different from what the IRS said it was supposed to be? What did you do? What do you think caused the problem, the IRS, you, or a tax preparer?
28. Have you ever paid too much or too little to the IRS? What happened as a result? What did you do to resolve that situation?
29. Have you ever received a notice from the IRS? How about multiple notices on one topic?
 - a. What was the notice about?
 - b. Were you prompted to take action?
 - c. What did you do after you read it?
 - d. Were you able to resolve the problem by yourself or did you need to contact the IRS or another source to resolve? If yes, how did you do this?
 - e. Did the issue ever get resolved? How?
30. Have you ever been audited? If yes, tell me about that process and the outcome.
31. Have you ever sought help in paying taxes (sought an installment agreement, extension to file, filed for bankruptcy, have a lien on your assets)?
 - a. Who did you go to discuss this matter with first? Did you go directly to the IRS or to an outside lawyer, tax advisor, etc.?
32. Have you ever had a tax issue you couldn't get resolved? What was the problem? Where did you go for help?
33. On a scale of 1- 10 (where 1 is terrible and 10 is the best imaginable, how well is the IRS doing to provide American taxpayers with:
 - Getting the help they need
 - Getting information they need
 - Help filing their taxes
 - Helping them file on time

Why?

34. Have you ever helped someone else prepare and/or file his or her taxes? Why did they need your help? How did you help them?
