

Appendix I

Comments in Response to the Federal Register Notice and Efforts to Consult Outside an Agency

A comment was received from an individual regarding government duplication within the area of convenience store violence. A response was sent to this individual thanking them for the comment and letting them know that their concerns were given careful consideration. This individual was also referred to CDC's website.