

Welcome!

This is the starting point to request a review of our medical decision about your eligibility for disability benefits. There are two parts to this Internet Appeal process: (1) an Appeal Request form; and (2) an Appeal Disability Report that gives us more information about your condition. You can complete both forms online. To appeal online, you may submit only an appeal request (Part 1). We are asking you to also submit an Appeal Disability Report (Part 2) because it will give us more information about you and help us in processing your appeal. If you do not want to use the Internet to request your appeal, there are Other Ways to Request an Appeal or Complete a Disability Report.

NOTE: We use the term "claimant" to refer to the adult or child whose disability decision is being appealed.

To be able to use this Internet process, the claimant must:

- Have applied for benefits
- Have received a "Notice of Disapproved Claim", a "Notice of Reconsideration", or "Notice of Federal Reviewing Official Decision", and have the notice available when beginning this process. (If you do not know which notice you received, refer to About Your Notice.)
- Disagree with the disability decision
- Live in the United States or one of its territories

If any of the above statements are not true, stop here and contact Social Security!

Completing the Internet Appeal Process

The first part of your appeal is the Appeal Request. The next five pages explain this request and help you get ready to provide the information we need. The sixth page is the Appeal Request form. We will ask you to provide information about your representative if you have one. You will be able to review the information you provide before sending it to us electronically. The Appeal Request is a short form and you must complete and submit it in a single session. You will not be able to come back to it later.

Part 2 of the two-part Internet process is completing the Appeal Disability Report. We will walk you through completion of this report right after you submit the Appeal Request. The Report asks you to tell us about any changes that have occurred since the claimant last completed a disability report. This includes information about the claimant's condition, doctors or other medical sources and treatment, work activity and education. You do not have to complete this report all at once. Later we will tell you how to return to an Appeal Disability Report that you had started earlier.

About This Internet Appeal Process

Using Social Security Online Services

Using the Internet Appeal Request and Disability Report gives you:

- Security and privacy for your information.
- Step by step instructions and examples to help you complete the Appeal Request and the Disability Report.
- A process to collect information that applies to you, similar to the interview process in a Social Security Office.
- The ability to work at your own pace, stopping when you want and coming back to finish later.

What You Will Need

The Internet Appeal Request and Disability Report process asks for information about the adult or child whose disability decision is being appealed (the "Claimant") and his or her medical history.

For us to decide that the Claimant is disabled under the Social Security Act and its regulations, you must give us as much information as possible so that we can contact your doctors and hospitals directly to get your medical records. It is important that you give us the names, addresses, and dates of treatment for all your doctors and hospitals. The list below provides details about what you will need.

For Part 1: The Appeal Request

- Your Social Security Number, name, address, and telephone number, if you have one.
- Your Notice of Decision.
- Information about your Representative, if you have one. Use this link for more information about having a Representative.

For Part 2: The Disability Report

- The name, address including ZIP code, and telephone number of someone else who knows about your illnesses, injuries and conditions (referred to only as conditions from here on) and can give us information about you. (Note: The instructions page for Part 2 provides a link for ZIP code lookup, if you need it.)
- A description of any changes in your conditions since you last completed a disability report, including new physical and mental limitations and new conditions.
- The names, addresses including ZIP codes, and telephone numbers for all doctors, hospitals, and clinics that you have seen since you last completed a disability report, and the dates you saw them.
- The name of each medical test that you have had since you last completed a disability report, when and where the test was done, and who ordered it.
- The name of each current prescription and over-the-counter medicine that you take and the doctor who prescribed it.

Privacy Information

The Social Security Act (sections 205(a), 702, 1631(e)(1)(a) and (b), and 1869(b)(1) and (c), and Public Law 106-169 (Section 809(a)(1) of Sections 251(a) and Section 1839(i) of the Act (P.L. 108-173) as appropriate) authorizes the collection of information on this form. We need the information to continue processing your claim. You do not have to give it, but if you do not you may not receive benefits under the Social Security Act. We may give out the information on this form without your written consent if we need to get more information to decide if you are eligible for benefits or if a Federal law requires it. Specifically, we may provide information to a Federal, State, or local government agency which is deciding your eligibility for a benefit or program; to the President or Congress; to a court; to an independent party who needs statistical information for a research paper or audit report on a Social Security program; or to the Department of Justice to represent the Federal Government in a court suit related to a program administered by the Social Security Administration. We explain, in the Federal Register, these and other reasons why we may use or give out information about you. If you would like more information, get in touch with any Social Security office, the Veterans Affairs Regional Office in Manila, or any U.S. Foreign Service post.

See revised
Privacy Act
Statement below.

We may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matching programs compare our records with those of other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Many agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree to it.

Explanations about these and other reasons why information about you may be used or given out are available in Social Security offices. If you want to learn more about this, contact any Social Security office, the Veterans Affairs Regional Office in Manila, or any U.S. Foreign Service post.

SSA will insert the following revised Privacy Act Statement into the form at its next scheduled reprinting:

Request for Hearing by Administrative Law Judge, Form HA-501-U5
Privacy Act Statement
Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205(a) (42 U.S.C. 405(a)), 702 (42 U.S.C. 902), 1631(e)(1)(A) and (B) (42 U.S.C. 1383(e)(1)(A) and (B)), 1839(i) (42 U.S.C. 1395r), and 1869(b)(1) and (c) (42 U.S.C. 1395ff) of the Social Security Act authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to continue processing your claim. The information you provide on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide all or part of the requested information could prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on your claim.

We rarely use the information you provide on this form for any purpose other than for the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:
