TITLE: NIH Postdoctoral Benefits Survey

GENERIC CLEARANCE UNDER OMB#: 0925-0627      EXP. DATE: 2/28/2014

ABSTRACT:

The purpose of this survey is to gather information regarding benefits (health, retirement, leave, child care, etc) provided to Postdoctoral Researchers by these grantee institutions. The NIH proposes to conduct a survey of grantee institutions that are member institutions of the National Council of University Research Administrators (NCURA). Information from the survey will be used by the NIH to assess the types, costs, and source of funding for benefits offered to Postdoctoral Researchers. This information will help the NIH consider policy aimed at equalizing benefits across various NIH support mechanisms and improve consistency with benefits packages available to all Postdoctoral Researchers, irrespective of their source of funding.
