¹ This form is the same form that is currently being used by States to report on their expenditures and recipients of services within the 29 service areas. This form has been modified for use as part of States' intended use plans. Instead of actual data, the form indicates that the data are estimates of expenditures and recipients and the methods of service provision are proposed. The same instructions for the SSBG Reporting Form for post-expenditure data should be used. The use of this form is completely voluntary.
