

Addition of Translated Forms 944-X (SP) and 944-X (PR)

The Form 944-X has been translated into Spanish. Employers, who prefer a Spanish translated form, can use Form 944-X (SP) to report those taxes and either makes a payment, claim a refund, or request abatement. Form 944-X (SP) cannot be used in Puerto Rico. Employers in Puerto Rico use Form 944-X (PR) to provide information and certifications to support prior period adjustments to social security and Medicare taxes reported on Form 944-X (PR). The creation of the two translated versions of the Form 944-X will result in an initial estimated increase of 110,000 responses and a total of 1,683,000 burden hours.
