U.S. Office of Personnel Management Civil Service Retirement System Boyers, PA 16017

Date

Civil Service Claim Number

Form Approved: OMB number: 3206-0235

		CSA
		File Reference
This is in response to your request for information on providing a survivor annual spouse survivor annuity election after your divorce or annulment — even if you a current spouse at the time of your retirement. The election that you made at ret annulment. If you fail to inform OPM that your marriage ended by divorce or an annuity election after your divorce or annulment, the fact that your annuity contiannuity will not entitle your former spouse to a survivor annuity after your death below carefully before making your election.	had already electe cirement is no longo anulment and fail to inues to be reduced	d a survivor and a survivor and er effective after make a new filt to provide a control of the survivide and the survivivion a	ennuity for that individual as er your divorce or former spouse survivor current spouse survivor
A. Filing Time Limit: You must file your election (a) within 2 years after the annulment or (b) within 2 years after the date another former spouse lost entitler reduced as explained in Chapter IX of the pamphlet.
B. If You Elect The Maximum Survivor Benefit Available For Your Forme below. Please see Part IV of the pamphlet for additional information.	er Spouse: Your a	nnuity will be	adjusted as explained
1. Your current gross monthly annuity rate is $
2. If applicable, there will be two reductions in your annuity to provide the surviver regular cost of the survivor benefit. This reduction may stop if your former spot amount your annuity would have been reduced for the survivor benefit (plus into this amount is $ and the monthly reduction to pay it back is $ former spouse loses entitlement. The reductions in your annuity may increase if	use loses entitleme erest) since your re This reduc	nt. The second tirement. As on tion is perman	d reduction represents the of
3. The above reductions to provide a survivor benefit will reduce your gross mo	onthly annuity to $_
4. Your former spouse's gross monthly survivor annuity rate including all cost-operations. Future COLA's will be applied to this rate. This is the maximum
C. Filing Instructions: If you want to provide the maximum available survivor the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, Retirement Operations Center, ATTN the filing time limit. See Part IX of the enclosed pamphlet for information on the	: PRM-STOP, P.O	O. Box 45, Boy	ers, PA 16017-0045 within
D. If You Want To Elect A Smaller Survivor Benefit: The reduction in your survivor benefit you elect. If you want to know the exact cost before you make please specify the monthly amount you want your former spouse to receive belothe address shown in Part C above. We will then provide you with the information	your election, do n w, provide your sig	ot complete th gnature and da	e election form. Instead, te, and return this letter to
I request information on providing a former spouse annuity of $ per	month. (Specify a	whole dollar	amount.)
Signature	Day time telephone nu	ımber	Date (mm/dd/yyyy)
Enclosures: RI 20.64A Former Spouse Survivor Annuity Election	Signature of Administ	rative Legal Spec	ialist, (724) 794-2005

RI 20-64B, Information on Electing a Survivor Annuity for Your Former Spouse