

Attachment J: Privacy of Data Agreement

Privacy of Data

The consultant agrees: (a) during the term of this Agreement and thereafter, not to disclose to others, directly or indirectly, any unpublished secure or secret information relating to the business, research activities or other interests of the Company, its clients or any of its affiliates (including, without limitations, any programs not intended for public disclosure, techniques or work products, any trade secrets, any reports, recommendations or conclusions, or any information as to present or future business plans or finances or as to any products, services, suppliers, customers or prospective customers) or use any such information after this agreement is terminated, unless such information is used solely on behalf of the Company; (b) to conform with the publication restrictions contained in the Company's contracts to which assigned; (c) to abide by privacy of data agreements required by the Company's client, and to sign such agreements, if asked.