TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION: Listening Tours

PURPOSE: The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) is committed to achieving customer service plan targets for FY12 by conducting several focus groups, targeting Federal Contractors and workers. The listening tours format is designed to gain insight and information about OFCCP’s stakeholder’s customer service experiences. We intend to conduct four additional listening tour events in FY13 to ensure we capture a diverse group of OFCCP’s stakeholders and their experiences when contacting OFCCP. Operational objectives directly related to the listening tours are listed below:

- 1) Increase workers’ awareness of their legal rights by establishing a standing panel of worker protection groups for quarterly focus groups to help OFCCP develop and refine outreach strategies targeting women and under-represented minority workers; and
- 2) To address the need to increase awareness among workers of their legal rights and identify ways to leverage the use of technology to reduce unnecessary burdens on contractors associated with records/data production, and understand the contractors’ perspectives on interactions with OFCCP.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS:

The participants are federal contractors, workers, workers’ interest groups (e.g., unions, community-based organizations), and civil rights organizations.
