Instructions:

Account Types

There are 3 account types to select from:

- U.S. Organization – A U.S. Organization is a United States citizen, corporation, partnership, or other association that exports or seeks to export goods or services produced in the United States; or a foreign corporation, partnership, or other association which is more than 95% owned by U.S. citizens or associations that exports or seeks to export goods or services produced in the United States.
- U.S. Student/Researcher – A U.S. Student/Researcher is someone who attends or works at a university or learning institution physically based, or with a campus in the U.S or a non-U.S. university or learning institution that operates active affiliates and/or exchange programs with U.S. based institution(s) (i.e., exchange programs, partnerships/programs with U.S. universities, etc.). Students/Researchers must register with the U.S. address of the U.S.-based learning institution in order to be granted access.
- Non-U.S. Organization – An organization that does not qualify as a US Organization is designated as a Non-US Organization.

Basic Information on Exporting Checkbox

If you are new to exporting or new to the Export.Gov website, check this box. In checking this box, you will receive additional information about the basics of exporting and of using this website. When you are comfortable with Export.Gov and no longer require the additional information, edit your User Preferences and uncheck the box to turn it off.

E-Mail Address

When entering your e-mail address, please enter the e-mail address of your business/organization/institution.
