Now we have some questions about the education level of your child you brought in for testing.
At ANY TIME IN THE LAST 3 months has your child attended high school or college?	1=No, my child has not attended in the last 3 months 2=Yes, my child is a full-time student 3=Yes, my child is a part-time student
What is the highest grade or level of school your child has completed or the highest degree your child has received? If currently enrolled, mark the previous grade or highest degree received.	00=No formal schooling 21=Preschool 22=Kindergarten 01=1st grade 02=2nd grade 03=3rd grade 04=4th grade 05=5th grade 06=6th grade 07=7th grade 08=8th grade 09=9th grade 10=10th grade 11=11th grade 12=12th grade - No diploma 13=High School Diploma, GED, or alternative credential	14=Some college credit but less than 1 year of college credit 15=1 or more years of college, no degree 16=Associates degree (for example, AA, AS) 17=Bachelor's degree (for example: BA, AB, BS)
Associate's degrees (AA's) can have an occupational, technical, or vocational focus or an academic focus. Occupational, technical, or vocational AA's are awarded in fields such as nursing and consumer services and typically provide training for specific jobs. Academic AA's are primarily awarded in liberal arts and the sciences and are typically sought by students who intend to transfer into a bachelor's degree program. Would you say your child's AA degree was...?	0=Occupational, technical or vocational 1=Academic
