Important Information About Your Appeal Rights

~~For more information about your appeal rights, call us or see your Evidence of Coverage.~~

There are two kinds of appeals you can file:

Standard (30 days) - You can ask for a standard appeal. We must give you a decision no later than 30 days after we get your appeal. (We may extend this time by up to 14 days if you request an extension, or if we need additional information and the extension benefits you.)

Fast (72 hour review) - You can ask for a fast appeal if you or your doctor believe that your health could be seriously harmed by waiting up to 30 days for a decision. We must decide on a fast appeal no later than 72 hours after we get your appeal. (We may extend this time by up to 14 days if you request an extension, or if we need additional information and the extension benefits you.)

- If any doctor asks for a fast appeal for you, or supports you in asking for one, and the doctor indicates that waiting for 30 days could seriously harm your health, we will automatically give you a fast appeal.
- If you ask for a fast appeal without support from a doctor, we will decide if your health requires a fast appeal. We will notify you if we do not give you a fast appeal, and we will decide your appeal within 30 days.

What do I include with my appeal?

Your written request should include: your name, address, member number, reasons for appealing, and any evidence you wish to attach. You may send in supporting medical records, doctors' letters, or other information that explains why we should provide the service. Call your doctor if you need this information to help you with your appeal. You may send in this information or present this information in person.

What Happens Next?

If you appeal, we will review our decision. After we review our decision, if any of the services you requested are still denied, Medicare will provide you with a new and impartial review of your case by a reviewer outside of your Medicare health plan. If you disagree with that decision, you will have further appeal rights. You will be notified of those appeal rights if this happens.
