2011-12 National Postsecondary Student Aid Study (NPSAS:12) Field Test

Consent – Telephone

Recently, we sent you material about a study we are conducting for the U.S. Department of Education about how students and their families pay for education beyond high school. The material explains that your participation is critical to the study's success and, as a token of our appreciation, you will receive a <initialize2_inc_fill> check once you complete the survey. Have you had a chance to read the material?

{If minor:}

Recently, we sent material to you and your parents about a study we are conducting for the U.S. Department of Education about how students and their families pay for education beyond high school. The material explains that your participation is critical to the study's success and as a token of our appreciation you will receive a <initialize2_inc_fill> check once you complete the survey. Your parents have reviewed the material and given permission for you to participate in this study. Have you had a chance to read the material?

If yes, received material:

(Ok great.) On average, the survey takes about 35 minutes. This call may be monitored or recorded for quality assurance purposes. You may decline to answer any questions or stop the survey at any time. May we begin the survey now?

(If you have any questions about this study, you may contact the study's director, Dr. Jennifer Wine, or for questions about your rights as a study participant, you may contact RTI's Office of Research Protection. If you would like their contact information I can give it to you. To contact Dr. Wine, call toll free at 1-877-225-8470; to contact RTI's Office of Research Protection, call toll free at 1-866-214-2043.)

If no, did not receive material:

The survey takes about 35 minutes and may be monitored or recorded for quality assurance purposes. Your responses, combined with student record information, may be used only for statistical purposes and may not be disclosed, or used, in personally identifiable form for any other purpose, unless otherwise compelled by law. (You are one of approximately 4,500 students who will be taking part in this study.) In addition to your survey responses, we collect financial aid, student records and related information from your institution and sources such as student loan databases and admissions testing agencies. {DISPLAY IF UNDERGRADUATE AND FTB FLAG = 1} Students who enrolled in college for the first time between July 1, 2010 and June 30, 2011 will also be part of a special follow-up study in future years that will help us learn about their education and employment experiences since this completing this 2011 survey.} Your participation is voluntary and will not affect any aid or other benefits that you may receive. You may decline to answer any question or stop the survey at any time. The risk of participating in this study is small and relates to data security. However, there are strict confidentiality and security procedures in place. If you would like us to re-mail the material to you, please let me know. May we begin the survey now?

(You may contact the study's director, Dr. Jennifer Wine, toll free at 1-877-225-8470.

For questions about your rights as a study participant, please contact RTI's Office of Research Protection toll free at 1-866-214-2043.)
