- you were married to the deceased at the time of his or her death for at least nine months, and
- your spouse elected to receive a reduced annuity to provide you with a survivor benefit.

The nine month duration of marriage requirement does not apply if your spouse's death was accidental or you and the deceased had a child.

The Office of Personnel Management will authorize the lump-sum payment of any monies due the retiree as soon as possible. The lump sum will be paid to the person who is legally entitled to it.

The U.S. Department of the Treasury will recover any payments to the retiree deposited by Electronic Funds Transfer after the retiree died.

Payments to You

We have already started payments to you. These payments will be suspended after 60 days if we do not receive your application or you do not contact us.

If your payment includes your annuity and the annuity for your children, you are obligated to inform us if a child marries or if a disabled child recovers from the disability.
