An Internet application for Social Security benefits was started for you by Jane Q Public on August 4, 2008. If you want this person to continue on your behalf, you do not need to take any action at this time.

What Happens Next

Once Jane Q Public finishes entering all required information, we will mail you a printed copy of the completed application to review and sign. After you review the application and make sure it is correct, you must sign and return it to the office address shown above. We will not take any action until we receive your signed application.

Once we receive your application, we will decide if you can get benefits. The sooner we receive it, the sooner we can decide.

We may use August 4, 2008, as the official date of this application. In order to use August 4, 2008, we must receive the signed application by February 11, 2009. You may lose Social Security benefits if we do not receive the signed application by February 11, 2009.

Supplemental Security Income or SSI is a federal program that provides monthly payments to people who have limited income and assets and who are age 65 or older, or blind, or have a disability. For more information about the SSI program, please read the pamphlet, "Supplemental Security Income".

If you intend to apply for SSI, you need to file your application with us by October 10, 2008 or you may lose SSI benefits. Call us at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778) to arrange an appointment to file for SSI. You cannot apply for SSI over the Internet.

An Internet application for Social Security benefits was completed for you by George Washington on December 8, 2008. We stored the information in our records and have included the application for your review and signature.

If you do not want these benefits, you do not need to contact us. We will not take any action unless we receive your signed application.

What You Need To Do

- Review all the entries on the application and confirm that the information is correct.
- Correct any information that is wrong and write your initials next to it.
- Sign and date the application in the space shown as, "Your Signature."

NOTE: It is important that you sign the application, not the person who filled it in for you or anyone else.

- Gather the documents shown on the enclosed List of Acceptable Evidence Documents. We will return all documents and photocopies to you unless you tell us you don't want them.
- Mail or bring the signed application and any proofs requested on the "List of Acceptable Evidence Documents" to the servicing field office. If you mail them, please follow the mailing instructions on the final page of this notice and add your return address and correct postage to the envelope provided. If the office location is different than the mailing address, it is listed in "If You Have Any Questions."

What Happens Next

Once we receive your signed application, we will decide if you can get benefits. The sooner we receive it, the sooner we can decide.

We may use December 8, 2008 as the official date of this application. In order to use December 8, 2008, we must receive the signed application by June 15, 2009. You may lose Social Security benefits if we do not receive the signed application by June 15, 2009.

Supplemental Security Income or SSI is a federal program that provides monthly payments to people who have limited income and assets and who are age 65 or older, or blind, or have a disability. For more information about the SSI program, please read the pamphlet, "Supplemental Security Income".

George Washington indicated that you intend to apply for SSI. You need to file your application with us by February 13, 2009 or you may lose SSI benefits. Call us at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778) to arrange an appointment to file for SSI. You cannot apply for SSI over the Internet.

Confirmation Number

You can check the status of your application on the Internet. Please wait at least 5 business days from the date you mail or bring your signed application to us before you check your application status. To check the status, go to 'Social Security Online' and select "What You Can Do Online". It can be found at www.socialsecurity.gov/onlineservices/. Select "Check your application status" and enter the Confirmation Number shown at the top of this notice. Please guard this number carefully. It's the key to your application information. Social Security employees will never ask for your Confirmation Number.
