MEDICARE INFORMATION

If this claim is approved and you are still entitled to benefits at age 65, you will automatically receive Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance) and Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance) coverage at age 65. If you are not eligible for automatic enrollment in Medicare Part B, this application may be used for voluntary enrollment.

COMPLETE ITEM 23 ONLY IF YOU ARE WITHIN 3 MONTHS OF AGE 65 OR OLDER

In most cases, Medicare does not pay for health care you get while traveling outside the United States. Your local Social Security office will be glad to explain more about Medicare.

Enrollment in Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance): Medicare Part B helps cover doctor's services and outpatient care. It also covers some other services that Medicare Part A doesn't cover. Once you are enrolled in Medicare Part B, you will have to pay a monthly premium. The date your Medicare Part B begins and the amount of the premium you must pay depends on the month you filed this application with the Social Security Administration. Your premiums will be deducted from any monthly Social Security, Railroad Retirement, or Office of Personnel Management benefit check you receive. If you do not receive such benefits, you will be notified how to pay your premiums. You will get advance notice if there is any change in your premium amount.

If you do not enroll in Medicare Part B now, you can enroll later only during a specified enrollment period. If you enroll later, your coverage may be delayed and you may have to pay a higher premium.

Collection and Use of Information From Your Application—Privacy Act Notice/Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

The Social Security Administration is authorized to collect the information requested on this form under sections 202, 205, and 223 of the Social Security Act. The information you provide will be used by the Social Security Administration to determine if you or a dependent is eligible to insurance coverage and/or monthly benefits. You do not have to give us the requested information. However, if you do not provide the information, we will be unable to make an accurate and timely decision concerning your entitlement or a dependent's entitlement to benefit payments.

We may also use this information when we match records by computer. Matching programs compare our records with those of other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Many agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree.

Explanations about these and other reasons why information you provide may be used or given out are available in Social Security offices. If you want to learn more about this, contact any Social Security office.

For those under full retirement age, the law requires that a report of earnings be filed with SSA within 3 months and 15 days after the end of any taxable year in which you earn more than the annual exempt amount. You may contact SSA to file a report. Otherwise, SSA will use the earnings reported by your employer(s) and your self-employment tax return (if applicable) as the report of earnings required by law and adjust benefits under the earnings test. It is your responsibility to ensure that the information you give concerning your earnings is correct. You must furnish additional information as needed when your benefit adjustment is not correct based on the earnings on your record.

Under a special rule known as the Monthly Earnings Test, you can get a full benefit for any month in which you do not earn wages over the monthly limit and do not perform substantial services in self-employment regardless of how much you earn in the year. For retirement age beneficiaries this special rule can be used only for one taxable year which will usually be the year of retirement. For younger beneficiaries such as young wives and husbands (entitled only by reason of child-in-care), this special rule can be used for two taxable years. The first taxable year in which the monthly earnings test may be used is usually the first year they are entitled to benefits. The second taxable year in which the monthly earnings test can be used is always the year in which their entitlement to benefits stops. In all other years, the total amount of benefits payable will be based solely on your total yearly earnings without regard to monthly earnings or services rendered in self-employment.

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY BEFORE YOU ANSWER QUESTION 22.

Benefits may be payable for some months prior to the month in which you file this claim (but not for any month before the first month you will be age 62 for the entire month) if:

You will earn over the exempt amount this year. For the appropriate exempt amount, see "How Your Earnings Affect Your Benefits."

If your first month of entitlement is prior to full retirement age, your benefit rate will be reduced. However, if you do not actually receive your full benefit amount for one or more months before full retirement age because benefits are withheld due to your earnings, your benefit will be increased at full retirement age to give credit for this withholding. Thus, your benefit amount at full retirement age will be reduced only if you receive one or more full benefit payments prior to the month you attain full retirement age.
