Addition of “None” check box underneath the block title. (Reason for addition: This will allow applicants to report that there is no U.S. or foreign product that is identical to the product described in the application.)

Additions to this block are indicated below in red font. The change will provide the applicant with the option of directing the Department of State to use email to correspond with the applicant, rather than use the U.S, postal service. (Reason for addition: Using email may expedite completion of the case, and provide a decision to the applicant more quickly.)
