SUMMARY OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OPTIONS

FEMA OPTION: Under this option, FEMA will be the administrator of Other Needs Assistance. The state shall coordinate ONA activities with FEMA. FEMA shall be responsible for functional elements 1 through 10.

JOINT OPTION: Under this option, the state will be the administrator of Other Needs Assistance. FEMA shall participate in providing ONA with the state. FEMA shall be responsible for functional elements 1,2,3,& 8. The state shall be responsible for functional elements 4,5,6,7,9, & 10.

STATE OPTION: Under this option, the state will be the administrator of Other Needs Assistance. The state shall report ONA activities to FEMA. The state shall be responsible for functional elements 1 through 10.

DESCRIPTION OF FUNCTIONAL ELEMENTS

This section explains the 10 functional elements that must be addressed to successfully implement the Other Needs Assistance mission.

Functional Element 1: Registration Intake is a systematic procedure for accepting applications (Application/Registration for Disaster Assistance FEMA Form 90-69) from disaster victims who are in need of Federal disaster assistance. The Procedures must provide for the acceptance of late applications, up to the prescribed time limitation as described in 44 CFR 206.112.

Functional Element 2: Inspection Services is a standard procedure for inspecting and verifying individually reported disaster-related damages, which will be used to determine the level of Federal disaster assistance.

Functional Element 3: Processing System is a prearranged procedure for making uniformed eligibility determinations, to include methods for determining cost for personal property and tracking eligibility decisions.

Functional Element 4: Disbursing Awards is a set procedure for issuing funds to applicants.

Functional Element 5: Staffing includes the responsibility for having adequate space and an appropriate number of trained personnel. It also includes the responsibility for having appropriate equipment necessary to process assistance (i.e. computers, phones and facsimile machines).

Functional Element 6: Recovery of Funds is an arranged procedure for collecting erroneously awarded funds.

Functional Element 7: Case Processing is a standard system to process applications and respond to applicant inquiries.

Functional Element 8: Mail Processing is a standard procedure for sending program decisions and receiving incoming mail.

Functional Element 9: Appeals is an official protocol for evaluating an applicant request to have a program decision reviewed.

Functional Element 10: Preparation of Closeout Material involves the preparation of the narrative and statistical documents that comprise a model closeout package. The duties of this function include ensuring that there are no cases pending and that all funds are reconciled for grants and reimbursement of state expense.

Auto-Determination is the process of allowing the NEMIS business rules to routinely process information received from registrations and inspections and make an eligibility determination without manual intervention.
