Peace Corps 50th Anniversary Archive

Thank you for contributing to the Peace Corps 50th Anniversary Archive Project.

Many of the stories and photos submitted to the archive will be used to honor and celebrate our legacy of service during Peace Corps' 50th anniversary celebration in 2011, and the 50th Anniversary Archive collection will be maintained as part of the Peace Corps' permanent archives. Archive materials will be accessible to the public through the Peace Corps website, and will be shared with the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

We are accepting only one story and up to 5 photos per contributor.

Contributors must also complete the accompanying Peace Corps 50th Anniversary Archive Project Material Submission Authorization and Agreement and return it along with your submissions. Contributors must accept the terms of the agreement in order to submit items to the archive.

Please return your

- Your story and/or photo(s)
- Your completed submission form
- Your completed Peace Corps 50th Anniversary Archive Project Material Submission Authorization and Agreement
