

INTRODUCTION

Thank you for your interest in the USDA/1890 National Scholars Program. The USDA/1890 National Scholars Program was established in 1992 as part of the partnership between the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the eighteen, 1890 Historically Black Land-Grant Universities.

The goal of the USDA/1890 National Scholars Program is to increase the number of minorities studying agriculture, food, natural resource sciences and other related disciplines. Each year, hundreds of students apply for the program that provides full tuition, room, board, internships, and full-time employment upon graduation.

The USDA/1890 National Scholars Program is open to graduating high school seniors up to rising college juniors attending any accredited university in the U.S. Applicants interested in applying as high school seniors should complete sections I, II, III, and IV of the application package. Applicants applying as rising college sophomores or juniors must complete section V and VI of the application package.

USDA/1890 National Scholars Program in the Agricultural, Food, and Natural Resource Sciences

Purpose

The purpose of the USDA/1890 National Scholars Program is:

- to strengthen the long-term partnership between USDA and the 1890 Land Grant Universities
- to increase the number of students studying agriculture, food, natural resource sciences or other related disciplines
- to offer career opportunities to USDA/1890 National Scholars at the U.S. Department of Agriculture

Objective

The National Scholars Program offers scholarships to U.S. citizens who are seeking a bachelor's degree at one of the eighteen 1890 Historically Black Land-Grant Institutions in any field of study in agriculture, food, natural resource sciences or other related disciplines. National Scholars are required to study in the following or related disciplines:

- Agriculture
- Agricultural Business/Management
- Agricultural Economics
- Agricultural Engineering/Mechanics
- Agricultural Production and Technology
- Agronomy or Crop Science
- Animal Sciences
- Botany

- Farm and Range Management
- Fish, Game, or Wildlife Management

- Other related disciplines, (e.g., non-medical biological sciences, pre-veterinary medicine, computer science)

The Award

Scholarships are awarded annually and must be used at one of the eighteen 1890 Historically Black Land-Grant Institutions. Each award provides annual tuition, employment, employee benefits, and use of a laptop computer, printer and software while on scholarship, fees, books, room and board for each of the 4 academic years, plus a requirement to work in the Student Educational Employment Program. Each annual scholarship renewal is contingent upon satisfactory performance and normal progress toward the bachelor's degree. Upon completion of the scholar's academic degree program, there is an obligation of 1 year of service to the U.S. Department of Agriculture for each year of financial support.

Who may Apply

Applicants must be U.S. citizens that are high school seniors completing high school diploma or a G.E.D. certificate and entering the first year of college and pursuing a bachelor's degree.
(Note: Since this program is intended to increase the number of students studying agriculture, food, natural resource sciences, or other related disciplines at participating institutions, currently enrolled bachelor's-level students at these universities are not eligible to apply.)

---

Application Deadline

All application materials must be postmarked no later than February 1 and sent to the university(s) selected by the applicant to attend.

General Eligibility

Applicant must:

- Be a U.S. citizen
- Be a graduating high school senior
- Expect to hold a high school diploma or G.E.D. certificate
- Have a high school GPA of 3.0 or better
- Have a combined verbal/math/written score of 1,500 or more on the SAT (note: 1000 or more combined for those universities that only accept verbal/math score) or a composite score of 21 or more on the ACT;
- Be interested in one of the eighteen 1890 Historically Black Land-Grant Institutions
- Intend to study agriculture, food, natural resource sciences, or other related disciplines
- Demonstrate leadership and community service
- Apply and be accepted for admission to the institution(s) of his or her choice

USDA/1890 National Scholars applicant check list

I have read Section V especially those elements detailing the eligibility requirements, schools that I must attend, and the February 1 deadline in which all application materials must be postmarked.

I have read and filled out Section VI and understand Section VI must be postmarked no later than February 1, in order to meet the eligibility requirements.

I have enclosed a current resume.

I have included an official transcript with grades through the fall semester.

I have enclosed two letters of recommendations from the following:

1. Department Head, Dean of College, or one of the University Vice Presidents
2. College Professor who has taught me

I have enclosed a 500-800 word essay describing 1) your interest in USDA, 2) how you envision the scholarship will impact you and your future as a public servant, and 3) your experiences and perceptions about agriculture, food, and natural resource sciences.

I have applied for admission to each 1890 Historically Black Land-Grant Institution of interest.

Note: Applicants must submit application to the liaison office at each 1890 University of the applicant's choice by February 1st postmark deadline.

Please review this form to make sure you have answered all questions completely. Proofread your responses.

I certify that I completed this application and that all statements made are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. (A false statement could eliminate me from consideration from this scholarship.)
