

Justification for Change

The COPS Office has responded to the public comment recommending that the CP-SAT short form be translated into Spanish, so that language is not a barrier to community members that wanted to participate in the CP-SAT. This edition does not impact the total number of burden hours or the total number of participants; it is simply another format of the CP-SAT form.